001	Top Dresser	Style: The piece has an early 20th-century or late 19th-century design, influenced by Victorian or Edwardian styles. The intricate woodwork, especially the ornamental detailing at the top. Woodwork: The wood is a combination of veneered panels and solid wood, with the grain showing beautiful patterns. The inlay work, particularly the decorative elements on the central drawer, adds to its uniqueness. Drawers and Shelves: There are two large interior wooden trays or pull-out drawers inside the top section. The lower section has additional drawers and cabinet space, all adorned with brass or brass-like hardware for the drawer pulls and handles. Condition: Good overall condition. Function: used as a china cabinet, buffet, or sideboard in a dining room for storing tableware, linens, or other household items.	$1,500.00
002	Glass Table	Design: The table has a modern-industrial aesthetic, characterized by its metal base with scroll-like, curved legs. The metal is dark, mid 20th century vintage art deco gilt wrought iron, giving it a sturdy and durable appearance. Top: The tabletop is made of a round piece of clear glass, which contrasts with the industrial look of the metal base, giving the table a more elegant, modern feel. The glass top to rest on small circular supports connected to the metal legs. Base: The metal base is highly decorative, with curled legs and a twisted central support, showing craftsmanship typical of wrought iron furniture. The design is custom-made or produced by a specialized furniture maker.	$300.00
003	Record Player	Design: The record player is encased in a polished wooden cabinet, styled after vintage or antique turntables. The wood finish gives it an elegant, classic look, with carved vertical ridges on the front corners adding to the aesthetic appeal. Turntable: The turntable itself seems to be a modern piece, with a rubberized mat for placing vinyl records. The tonearm and stylus are visible, suggesting that the unit may be functional. Controls: Near the front, there are two knobs— for volume control and power—which indicates that this is a more modern version of a classic design, electric or battery-powered rather than manual like early phonographs. Condition: The cabinet and turntable is in good condition, with minimal wear. The combination of classic wooden housing and modern electronic parts suggests this is a retro or reproduction model rather than a true antique.	$65.00

005	Jewelry Cabinet	Material: solid wood or wood veneer, with a dark cherry or mahogany finish. Design Style: Traditional, featuring curved edges on the top and sides, with detailed brass or brass-like drawer pulls. The chest features a symmetrical drawer design and a lower cabinet section. Drawer Configuration: Multiple small drawers at the top ( for smaller items like jewelry or documents). Larger drawers and a two-door cabinet at the bottom for more substantial storage. Usage: Suitable as a bedroom chest for clothing, a storage unit, or even a decorative piece in a living or dining room.	$50.00
006	Wooden round dining table with four matching chairs	Table Material: oak or an oak veneer, with a natural finish. The table has a simple round design, with a leaf insert that can extend or retract the table. Chair Design: Wooden chairs with detailed, carved high backs. Spindle legs and red seat cushions, suggesting a traditional or country-style design. Style: The entire set gives a rustic, country kitchen feel, common in traditional dining areas. The decorative backs on the chairs provide an ornamental touch, while the red cushions add comfort.	$100.00
007	Briggs & Stratton Platinum Lawn Mower	Engine Type: Briggs &amp; Stratton Platinum series engine, known for its durability and easy start technology ("Our easiest starting engine"). Displacement: 190cc, which is a mid-to-high range engine size for a walk-behind lawn mower. Torque: 6.75 ft-lbs gross torque, providing sufficient power for handling thick grass and moderately hilly terrain. Application: Likely part of a self-propelled or push lawn mower, ideal for medium to large yards.	$150.00
008	Aero XL by Karrite roof cargo box	Brand: Karrite Model: Aero XL, which is a large-capacity roof box. Material: Most roof cargo boxes like this one are made from durable, weather-resistant plastic, designed to protect your belongings from the elements while driving. Size: The "XL" in the name typically refers to extra-large storage capacity. These roof boxes often have between 15 to 18 cubic feet of storage space, allowing users to pack a significant amount of gear. Mounting System: These boxes are designed to fit on top of vehicles with roof racks, using adjustable mounting brackets.	$100.00
009	Vintage-style globe on a wooden stand	Globe Type: The globe itself to be a classic-style map, with a vintage or old-world design, featuring geographical details that suggest it's decorative rather than an up-to-date cartographic tool. Stand Material: The globe is mounted on a polished wooden tripod stand with curved legs and a central column. The stand has a rich finish, mahogany or another dark wood. Functionality: These globes are typically able to rotate on their axis, and the arm surrounding the globe may have latitude markings, allowing for basic navigation and educational purposes. Style: This type of globe is likely styled after 18th- or 19th-century globes and serves as both an educational and decorative item.	$50.00

010	Modern office chair	Seat: Red fabric cushion, which is padded for comfort. The fabric shows some signs of wear. Backrest: Black mesh, allowing airflow and providing support during long periods of sitting. The frame around the mesh is outlined in red fabric, matching the seat. Armrests: Simple black plastic armrests that are attached to a metal frame. These are non-adjustable. Base: Black plastic or metal with five wheels for easy mobility. This is a standard rolling office chair base. Style: The chair is minimalist and functional, suitable for a home office, study area, or light work use.	$50.00
011	Wooden cabinet with two compartments	Material: The cabinet to be made from solid wood or wood veneer, walnut or another dark-toned hardwood. Design:  The upper section consists of two doors that open to reveal shelves for storage, likely for books, kitchenware, or other household items.  The lower section seems to have two pull-out drawers or a storage compartment, based on the visible separation in the wood grain.  The overall style is simple and functional, with a minimalist mid-century modern aesthetic (characterized by clean lines and natural wood tones). Condition: From the image, the wood to be in relatively good condition, though there might be minor signs of wear consistent with age.	$25.00
012	Grandfather clock	Style: This to be a traditional or antique-style grandfather clock with an ornate wooden frame. The upper section has an arched top, characteristic of traditional grandfather clocks, and a detailed clock face with gold accents. Clock Face: The face has both numbers and decorative elements, with moon phase or celestial designs near the top. The numerals are Arabic and the hands are elegantly styled. Pendulum and Weights: The glass front on the lower section reveals the brass pendulum and two weights, which are part of the clock's mechanical movement system. Material: The clock is likely made of hardwood, oak or mahogany, with a dark, polished finish. Function: Grandfather clocks typically operate using a mechanical weight-driven movement, with chimes on the hour and sometimes quarter-hour chimes.	$100.00
013	Large display cabinet or wall unit	Material: The cabinet to be made from a combination of wood and wood veneer with a dark finish. The interior shelves seem to have a lighter color or white finish, likely to highlight the items on display. Design:  The unit has multiple compartments, including:  Glass shelves for displaying glassware and decorative items.  Closed cabinets on both the upper and lower sections for storage.  A middle section with a drop-down door or panel that could serve as a bar or additional storage.  The cabinet is minimalist in design, with clean lines and functional storage, inspired by mid-century modern furniture trends. Functionality: Ideal for use as a china cabinet, liquor cabinet, or general display unit in a living or dining room. The clear shelves make it perfect for showcasing glassware, while the closed cabinets offer additional storage.	$100.00

014	Wooden hutch or china cabinet	Material: The hutch to be made from dark-stained wood, oak or pine, with a classic, rustic finish. Design: Upper Section: Two glass-paneled doors with interior shelving for displaying dishware or decorative items. An open middle section for displaying larger or frequently used items. The top has a decorative trim that gives it a traditional, somewhat vintage appearance. Lower Section: Two drawers for storing cutlery, linens, or small household items. Three cabinet doors with metal hardware for larger storage, such as dishware, pots, or other kitchen items. A flat surface in between the upper and lower sections that could be used for food service or display. Style: The hutch has a traditional, country-style appearance, with an emphasis on functionality and rustic charm. The wood grain and decorative hardware suggest it might be older or designed to evoke a vintage look.	$500.00
015	Corner office desk setup	Desk Type: This is a corner desk setup, offering a large working surface that spans two walls of the room, making it ideal for a home office or study. The desk has: Left Section: A large section with six drawers, providing ample storage for office supplies, documents, or personal items. Middle Section: A corner portion with a drawer, useful for organizing smaller items or keeping essential materials close at hand. Right Section: Another section with drawers, including a small hutch or shelving unit placed on top, likely for books or decorative items. Material: The desk to be made of wood or wood veneer with a combination of dark and lighter wood tones on the drawer fronts. The mix of wood grains gives it a modern, slightly rustic look. Style: The overall style leans toward a modern or contemporary design, with clean lines and simple hardware. The contrast between dark wood on the surfaces and lighter wood on the drawer faces creates an interesting visual effect.	$100.00
016	Small wooden cabinet or side table	Material: The cabinet is likely made from wood or a wood veneer with a dark finish. It has a simple, smooth surface with no visible ornamentation aside from the metal handles. Design: The cabinet has two long vertical handles, indicating either two drawers or doors that open vertically. The overall design is quite minimalist, with a mid-century modern influence, focusing on functionality and simplicity. Functionality: This piece could function as a small side table, nightstand, or storage cabinet, ideal for storing personal items, documents, or small electronics.	$25.00

017	Two vintage-style side tables	Left Table (Dark Wood with Leather Inlay)  Material: Made from wood with a leather-inlaid top. The leather surface to have decorative gold embossing around the edges, which adds a touch of elegance.  Design:            Traditional design with simple, straight legs and rounded corners on the tabletop. The bottom shelf provides additional storage or display space. The wood to have a polished, dark finish.  Functionality: This table is practical and can be used as a side table or small coffee table in traditional or vintage-styled interiors. 2. Right Table (Ornate Red Surface)  Material: Also made from wood, with a red faux-leather inlay on the tabletop and ornate gold detailing along the edges.  Design:            More decorative and ornate, featuring curved legs and scalloped edges on the tabletop, along with intricate carving details on the legs and sides. The bottom shelf provides extra space for displaying decorative items. The style is more reminiscent of French or Victorian furniture, with an emphasis on ornate, decorative elements. Functionality: This table serves as both a functional and decorative piece, ideal for use in a more formal living room or sitting area.	$150.00
018	TV stand	Material: Likely made from oak or a similar light-colored wood, with a natural wood grain finish. The surface to have a solid and durable construction.  Design:  Top Section: An open shelf designed to hold electronics like DVD players, gaming consoles, or cable boxes.  Bottom Section: Two cabinet doors with built-in handles for easy access to the storage compartment. The cabinet doors have a carved design, giving them a modern yet rustic appearance.            The overall design is simple and minimalist, with a focus on functionality over ornamentation.  Functionality: This piece is ideal for use in a living room or bedroom as a media stand, small storage unit, or side table. The open shelf allows for easy access to electronics, while the cabinet provides hidden storage for accessories or personal items.	$100.00
019	Vintage-style wooden side table	Material: The table to be made from solid wood or wood veneer, likely with a dark, polished finish, cherry or mahogany.  Design:The table has cabriole-style legs, which are curved and add an element of sophistication. This design is often associated with Queen Anne or Chippendale furniture styles.            There is an open storage compartment below the tabletop, for books, magazines, or decorative items.            The tabletop is smooth and flat, ideal for placing lamps, books, or other small items. There seems to be a small knob below the open compartment, which may be part of a hidden drawer or decorative feature.  Style: This table's traditional design, especially with the curved legs, makes it ideal for vintage, classic, or formal settings such as a living room, study, or bedroom.	$100.00
